Dear Eric -

I was in Cleveland yesterday and found about thirty items that we can use in our Virginia book.

I believe we set our meeting for Wednesday 14th. I think I will come over on the afternoon plane Tuesday which arrives around 4 PM. I will phone

you for time of meeting. The time will be at your convenience.

Best wishes

Dear Eric -

I have just finished the pages for the notes received on my trip to St. Louis and New York - the notes are now on their way to Frank Hamrah to be photographed and when they are returned, I will forward your notes to you.

It was a real pleasure to visit with you and I enjoyed every minute.

You have a fabulous collection of numismatic material and I greatly appreciate your taking time out during your crowded hours to check your Virginia bank notes with me.

I gained much during the hours spent with you and thank you for your help and the many courtesies extended.

Best wishes

Dear Mrs Newman -

What a delightful evening it was that I spent in your home!

I enjoyed so much the delicious dinner served in such a cheerful and pleasant way - so typical of a Georgian.

Thank you both for inviting me to your beautiful home and I hope when you are over this way, you will come to 34 Peyton.

Best wishes to you all.

Dear Charles:

I received your photocopies of the Alexandria banks and wish to advise you that I have the $1 and the $10 of the Franklin Bank of Alexandria, which are not included, and also a variety of the Merchants Bank of Alexandria $10 note which is not included. They are enclosed and are to be returned with the others you borrowed.

I also have a duplicate $1 Franklin Bank of Alexandria which is missing some portions and if you want to exchange it for some other dog in your collection of the same period, I am enclosing it for that purpose.

Kindest regards.

Dear Charlie:

Thank you, very much, for the Providence counterfeit.

I just received the photocopy of the interesting sheet of the June 8, 1780 Maryland notes. Who is the owner of this?

It appears to me that the other four denominations could have been substituted for some of these denominations in further printings as there is no assurance that equal amounts of each denomination were printed. The backs were apparently printed on the same face and I am wondering if I could have a photocopy of the backs as well.

In your other letter you asked whether I had an $8 Yorktown to swap for a $40 Yorktown. I suggest that you send me a photocopy of the $40 Yorktown as it probably is a counterfeit but I am interested in what counterfeit variety it might be. If it is genuine I could keep it in my duplicates. I am presuming that I have an $8 duplicate but have to go mining in my safe deposit box to find it.

Kindest regards.

Dear Charles:

I checked my Yorktown duplicates today and I find that I do have a couple of $40 duplicates. I have one $8 duplicate in very good to fine condition.

It occurred to me that you might have something in your large group of Colonial and Continentals which would be something new for my collection. Do you have a Pennsylvania 10s March 10, 1769? Do you have a 40s Pennsylvania April 3, 1772 Plate A?

If you are going to the A.N.A. convention, would you be nice enough to bring the rest of your $40 Yorktowns so that I could see if any of them are counterfeit, as I am revising my counterfeit variety description.

You were very nice to send me the print of the back of the Maryland sheet of June 8, 1780 and I will list this sheet in the revised edition of Early Paper Money of America, if there is such.

I am looking forward to seeing your new Virginia book at its first appearance.

Dear Charlie:

The Budde collection of Colonial currency will be auctioned in due course, as you know.

I am particularly anxious to obtain a few items. I did not want to run into a conflict with you and wanted you to know early.

As you know, one of my greatest collecting interests is early American paper money and there is a 3d piece of scrip issued by Lane (Zane?) Craig, of Winchester, Virginia, in 1771 which I want very much to buy. If I could obtain it I would gladly lend it to you at any time for any purposes you might find desirable. There are very few other Virginia items which I am particularly anxious to obtain but I can list them and perhaps you can list those you are interested in so that we can avoid a possible conflict.

Incidentally, there is a nice Yorktown $8 note in the sale and I believe it is better than my specimen but I will certainly yield to you on that.

There is only one James River Bank piece, which is a technical variety, which I need, namely, a $5 note of 1775 which is almost torn in half.

There are a number of bills of other colonies which I probably will wish to buy, but I assume you have no particular desire with respect to them.

Will you, therefore, let me hear from you in due course as soon as you have had a chance to check the catalogue. It is in galley proof stage now.

Kindest personal regards.

Sincerely yours,

Our letters crossed and it was particularly nice of you to congratulate me on the Verbe Award.

Your Virginia book received the accolations it deserved and its reward. Now, let's see you get the award the second time with your second book.

You make me hungry when you mention peanut soup. The last time I had peanut soup was in Tanzania, at a banquet for Julius Nyerere. My wife and I had to transport it in our car in an open tureen. There were more bugs drowned in the soup than peanuts.

The enthusiasm of your Virginia collectors is certainly due to your stimulation.

Glad you got the $8 Yorktown.

A piece of J. Gambel Dowdall's three pence scrip dated at Winchester, Virginia, May 5, 1777, was purchased by you as Lot No. 1169 at the Budde Auction in Washington, D. C., on October 29, 1969, for $85 in accordance with the following prior understanding with me:

At the time of your incompetency or death, whichever first occurs, your personal representative agrees to offer the above item to me for purchase by letter at a price of $85 plus 7 per cent per annum interest from October 29, 1969, until the date of the sale. Dear Charles:

Since your books were so successful and well received, I thought I ought to ask you for any suggestions for improvement of Early Paper Money of America. At the Boston convention, where I hope to see you, I am going to discuss with Ken Bressett a Bicentennial edition. If, therefore, you have any improvements to suggest, it would be very timely.

You will recall that we have an understanding with respect to the 1777 Virginia 3 Pence Scrip. If you ever want to sell it to me early on the agreed basis, I will be glad to buy it at any time. You have enjoyed it for a while.

I have been working rather steadily on the Bicentennial Medal and Coinage Program and this is quite frustrating. I would much rather work on piecing together old historic matters just as you would.

Mr. Charles Affleck
Winchester , Virginia

Dear Charles:

My interest in collecting Early American Paper Money is paramount and that is why I am so anxious to acquire the 3d Virginia piece in the Budde auction. That is why I wrote you right away even though I apparently got the name wrong. You do not specialize in Colonial and are Mr. 19th century Virginia collector. I thought we might collide on this piece. Perhaps neither of us will get it. Is there some way we can divide its enjoyment? Think of something so we do not have to compete with each other. Its not a question as to how high we might make each other bid , but how we can avoid hurting each others collecting enjoyment. If I could own it I would have no objection to your keeping it or displaying it for any reasonable period. We could own it equally and have the other have the right to buy the other half when the first one of us went non-compos, quit collecting or died.

The L5 James River piece I want is #1148 because it has ruled lines for fill in. I have the piece without the lines. It is a technical variety and there is another one in the sale in 1147 with the lines. Otherwise there is no real difference. #1148 is badly torn but I would like to have it as I do not know anyone who collects technical varieties.

There are a few others which I could use but that can wait until we meet there.
Please think about the above.

Dear Eric -

It was good to visit with you in Wash.
and I only wish our paths would often cross. There are no paper money collectors in our village
and I get lonesome
for folks to talk with.

Thank you for your check - enclosed is Budde memo for your note. I gave you the wrong slip
when I handed you the note.

I am also enclosing the signed agreement
re the Manchester 3d 1777 piece of scrip.

I am enclosing list of notes showing conditions and items need to trade for. Some of my duplicate
I want to trade
for are denominations that I need of the same issue
otherwise I will never acquire them.

I wish you would carefully look over the list of my items for trade and let me know

CHARLES J. AFFLECK

34 PEYTON STREET

WINCHESTER, VIRGINIA

Collector Confederate Currency and Stamps

the particular items in which you are interested. The note that I show you told you that I would not trade with any one until ~~we~~ you had the first opportunity but I did not mean this would apply to all of my duplicates since I have some 1200 to swap for items
that I do not have.
I want you to go over the list and have first choice. A lot of my duplicates are a dozen or more of the same kind as is the case in every collection.

It is very kind of you to offer me one of your books when I come your way - I have a memory like an elephant.

Thank you again
for the beautiful autograph you placed in my book - It means so much to me.
Best wishes to you

Dear Charles

You indicate you are numismatically conscious in Winchester. Here I am in a large city and it's like a numismatic desert. If I want to talk coins I must talk about proof sets.

As to our trade I am pleased to have found in my dumps some of the items listed in your written memo but many more on your typewritten list. I am enclosing:

Nd 6/1/80 #3 -

Md 7/6/75 # $\frac{1}{2}$ worm holes included

Md 6/8/80 #20 -

Penna 5/16/85 18d

Penna 5/16/85 10sh

Penna 5/16/85 15sh

These are some of the above which do not come up in condition to what your dumps are and I expect to add more pieces you don't have to balance. Will you select what you are interested in seeing from the enclosed.

~~My only request is that you~~ I do want to acquire from you the following:

Md 7/16/75 #8

Md 6/8/80 #4

Md 6/8/80 #8

Penna 6/1/80 #4

Penna 6/1/80 #5

Penna 6/1/80 pro

Penna 4/10/81 #20sl

Penna 4/10/81 30sl

Penna 4/10/81 40sl

Penna 4/10/81 £5

Please advise me whether you Penna 10sh 1769 has a broken upper right corner in the leaf cut on the reverse or not.

I look forward to hearing from you thanks for your other comments, the contract on the 3d scrip, etc

Did you overlook that I also collect Virginia items.
If you would see my collection you would think that I never heard of Georgia and really I lived in that state from 1932 until 1951, and never collected a note
but had fun spending them.

This will be all for this time.

I hope I have graded fairly. You get many more pieces so that's good. I add up a bit more than yours.

I look forward to hearing about your 1769 10sh and if you have the time I'll be grateful.

I assumed you had all the Vergennes I had in duplicates but I'll check your list again.

We will do more trading for mutual benefit now that you have some of my choice pieces

Dear Eric -

You received this morning and I have had fun patting the notes in my collection. The trade was fine and I needed all items with the exception of the enclosed Georgia you had it listed as a $a 78⁰⁰ $20 + 75⁰⁰ which I do need but it turned out to be a $20 which I have.

My copy of the 1769 Penna 10s note, had show a broken upper right corner in the leaf cut on the reverse similar to the cut pictured in your book upper right page 251.

I went over to GANA show in Wash - bought two state notes - very small crowd and the spirit was missing.

I graded and priced the four notes you originally sent and on your list today we were only $5 apart - working pretty close. Eh!

Do you see any other items on the "list for trade" that I sent you? I want you to check it before I offer to trade elsewhere as I wrote in my last letter.

I am going to Richmond this coming week end to try to make arrangements with the Jefferson Hotel for next year's Show and Convention VNA in Sept.

Next week will try to set up Show for our local Club at the Geo Washington Hotel there for the last of March. It means a lot of work but I am always to help when I can. It is so much easier for me to handle than see some others struggle.

Thanks for the exchange I hope I graded fairly and if any items you do not agree we will change. ^{Best wishes} Charles

Dear Charles:

On your list of early American Paper Money for trade, there are no more which I do not have but I certainly would like to improve my specimens in a lot of situations.

Would you, therefore, be nice enough to let me know the condition of the items on the enclosed list. If they are better than mine, I would be interested in exchanging something for them.

Thanks, so much, for giving me this opportunity.

Kindest regards.

Sincerely yours,
